

The Colorado Society of Private Investigators

---

Code of Ethics

The Colorado Society of Private Investigators is dedicated to the pursuit of excellence through exceptional professional standards, lifelong learning, and ethical responsibility to its members, clients, and the public.

1. A member shall provide professional services in accordance with local, state and federal laws.
2. A member shall safeguard client information and exercise the utmost care to prevent any unauthorized disclosure of such information.
3. A member shall never knowingly defame the professional reputation or practice of colleagues, or members of CSPI.
4. A member shall provide truthful, accurate, factual reports to clients.
5. A member will counsel clients against any illegal course of action.
6. A member will explain to the best of their ability all fees and expenses reflected on client invoices.
7. A member will make no claim to professional qualifications they do not possess.
8. All licensed Colorado private investigators, pursuant to Article 58.5 of Title XII, must adhere to the "Private Investigator licensing rules and regulations."